

PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

Graduates of the Computer Engineering Program are expected to have:

PEO 1: Have strong competence in computer engineering resulting in successful careers.

PEO 2: Pursuing research and innovation and be able to provide industrial solutions for engineering and technical problems.

PEO 3: Leading or participating in efforts to address societal and technical / business challenges.

PEO 4: Enhancing their professional development and technical knowledge through continuing education.